Completing the registration process for youth sports programs includes an understanding that parents and the athlete have reviewed the information on concussions and sudden cardiac arrest in a Department Seasonal Activity Guide or online at www.howardcountymd.gov/concussion.htm and www.howardcountymd.gov/suddencardiacarrest.htm. This is reflected on your receipt and if you have not reviewed this information you must review the information prior to the first session for you to comply with the state law. If you are unable to review this in our activity guide or online/ our registration office can provide you written copies upon request.
