

2019 LEGISLATIVE SESSION SNAPSHOT

County Executive Calvin Ball was proud to support many bills that passed this year. Here are just a few.

EDUCATION

$300K for Harriet Tubman School

$8.8M for improved education

Teacher salary raises

Local autonomy of school calendar

PUBLIC SAFETY

Next generation 9-1-1 technology

Anti-bullying and youth suicide prevention

Justice for survivors of sexual assault

ENVIRONMENT

Regional partnerships to lower Greenhouse gas emission limits

Renewable energy source expansion

ELLICOTT CITY

$3.4M for immediate flood mitigation projects

Multi-year state funds for flood mitigation

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

$200K for Gateway Innovation Center

Minimum wage increase

Local control for 5G expansion

COMMUNITY SERVICES

Housing for veterans experiencing homelessness and survivors of domestic violence

Lower prescription drug costs

Support for seniors aging in place

THANK YOU HOWARD COUNTY DELEGATION

STATE SENATORS

Clarence K. Lam, Chair
Guy Guzzone, Majority Leader
Katie Fry Hester

STATE DELEGATES

Terri L. Hill, Chair
Vanessa Atterbeary
Eric Ebersole
Jessica Feldmark
Trent Kittleman
Warren E. Miller
Shane Pendergrass
Jen Terrasa
Courtney Watson

"Howard County has a lot to celebrate from this legislative session. I was proud to give testimony that helped make our community a stronger, safer, and better place to live. This year will also bring historic, record-breaking funding from the state to Howard County. I want to thank the entire Howard County delegation for their hard work and I look forward to continuing to speak up on behalf of our residents in Annapolis."

-Calvin Ball