Parent and child activity.

To help ensure your child knows how to dial 911 try out this activity below.

Use post-it notes to create a phone dial pad on your wall. Make sure the dial pad matches how your mobile phone looks.

Have your child show you how to dial 911.

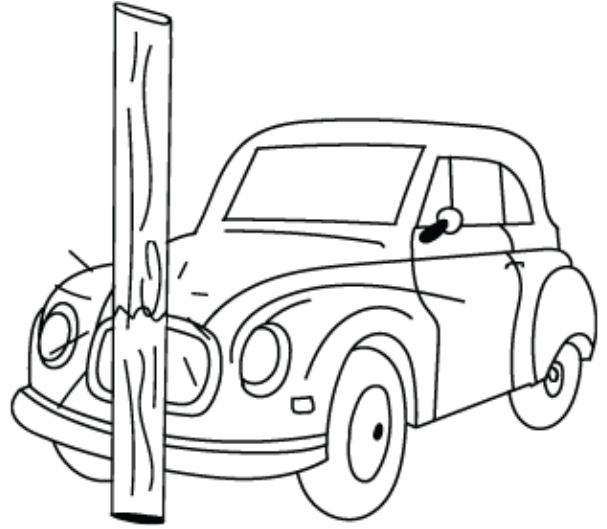

It's a good idea to practice this skill more than once. Completing this activity monthly can ensure that your child will know what to do if they ever have to call 911 in an emergency.

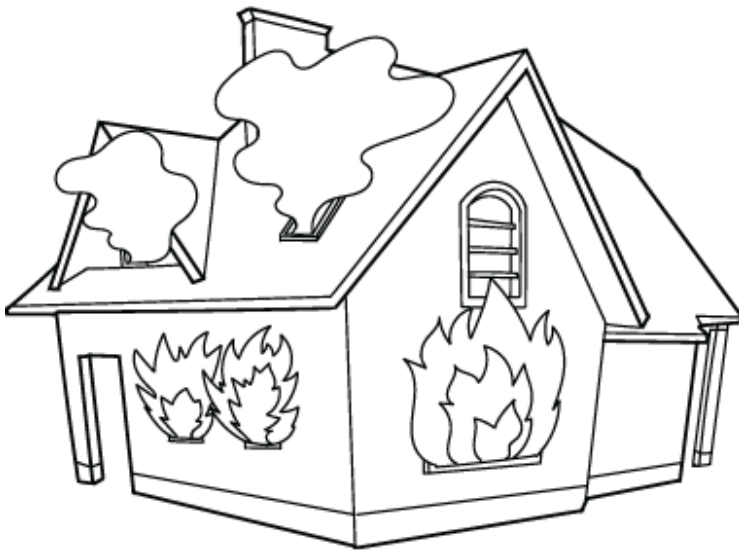

Color in the emergencies below.

You are upset with your friend.

There has been a car accident.

A house is on fire.

You drop your ice cream cone.
